Accounting is the process of identifying, measuring, and communicating in terms of money the financial position and performance of an organization to the interested parties. It is a systematic process of recording, classifying, summarizing in terms of money transactions and events which are in part at least in part financial in nature and in terms of which financial statements are prepared. It also includes the interpretation of the results thereof. IFRS is a set of accounting standards developed by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB) that are used by companies worldwide. Conceptual Framework is a set of principles that guide the development of accounting standards. ...
