The 1992 movie, THE LAST OF THE MOHICANS, undoubtedly ranks as one of the finest period pieces of all time. One of the first things to strike me was the gorgeous scenery permeating the film throughout. It prompted me to follow its often arduous trail and see to where it led. Not too surprisingly, it brought me to some of

The Last of the Mohicans is a novel about race and the difficulty of overcoming racial divides. Cooper suggests that interracial mingling is both desirable and dangerous. Cooper lauds the genuine and longtime friendship between Hawkeye, a white man, and Chingachgook, a Mohican Indian. Hawkeye and Chingachgook's
